NY DAILY NEWS Sunday Sept. 14, 1975

Well Guarded In Dallas

Dallas, Sept. 13 (UPI)—Nine police and protective agencies, including the Texas rangers, guarded President Ford today on his visit to this city where John F. Kennedy was assassinated 12 years ago.

"I have no concern about security," said Ford on his arrival at Love Field. He said the Kennedy assassination "never entered my mind. It has been a great trip. People have been so wonderful."